Last Chance Camping...

It is amazing how quickly the camping season goes. But the days are getting shorter and the air has a crispness in the evenings. The sun is deliciously warm sitting and listening to the rustling of leaves as people walk by. In the Upper Peninsula the colors are approaching peak as of this writing and people are traveling to get the last essence of the season.

[Birthday
Bash Rally at Potawatomi State
Park, Sturgeon Bay](#)

Our unit has a one last camping rally and luncheon (Nov.3-5)...open to all, no need to make reservations at the state park, just come...say "I'm with Ed & Sandy Emerick's group." [Note: Sandy and Ed Emerick are hosting the rally; 920-475-7893].

Potawatomi State Park is part of the Wisconsin park system. There is hiking and biking opportunities available. [Note: did you know that the park is the eastern terminus of the Ice Age National Science Trail? Good to know dinner conversation...just saying] The campground is called Daisy Field and runs along the banks of Sturgeon Bay. There are power sites and showers available. Hope to see you there!

Driftless Area Caravan ...

The caravan hosted by retired unit president Kurt and Mary Jorgensen, traveled along the glacial drift in Wisconsin, to the deeply-carved river valleys in southeastern Minnesota and northeastern Iowa. From the pictures and video posted on the unit's Facebook page... everyone had a great time.[Note: This group may have brought a new perspective to the movie/short story by Stephen King... Children of the Corn(1984/1977).]

Reminder: Deadline for submitting 2018 dues is November 30th for both directories:

Thoughts from Greg....

Many thanks to Kurt and Mary Jorgensen for a great year – topped off with a attraction packed caravan in Iowa. Their caravan is a reminder that we can find enjoyable and educational adventures close to home.

Jane and I are excited about planning next year's events – stay tuned. We're looking into some events around Wisconsin food festivals – think cherry picking; touring cranberry bogs or cheese factories. How about a quick trip around Lake Michigan? Let me know if there is someplace you've wanted to see or an activity you'd like to do with the group. There will also be a chance this winter to connect at one of our monthly luncheons around the state. It's easy to host a lunch in your area – contact me about a date and make the reservation!

We joined the Club to connect with other Airstream fans; to learn from them and hoped that some of the adventurous spirit of the 1950's and 1960's Airstream caravan folks would rub off on us. Let me know why you joined and how the Club can help you.

Thanks for joining or renewing your membership for 2018. The Wisconsin group continues to rapidly grow in and I look forward to connecting by email or at one of our events – my email is grhyer@wisc.edu.
